Shopping Centre Scafoholic

Queenland's CQ Edge Protection are new to the Layher fold – and they certainly seem to be relishing the Allround system's capabilities.

For the Stockland Shopping Centre in Rockhampton they built a birdcage scaffold over a 20m x 3.5m void and this facade that spans 15m over Moores Creek – and all this without a lattice girder in sight.

"Layher's strength is amazing!" says Managing Director Paul Robson. "The strength of the diagonals opens up a whole new world of scaffolding possibilities . . ."

Thank you to Paul and Gale Robson of CQ Edge Protection for the use of these photos.
